General handling and safety

- Solvents, alcohols and monomers are flammable. Store in ventilated areas away from ignition sources, with grounding and bonding during transfers.
- Caustic soda and potassium hydroxide are corrosive. Use gloves, goggles and protective clothing, and keep away from acids and from aluminium, zinc or tin.
- Safety Data Sheets (SDS) and Certificates of Analysis (COA) are available for each product and shipment.
- Many products are hazardous. Handling, storage and transport must follow the SDS and applicable local regulations.
